

AMBER PRASAD PANT:

D.L. and M.A. (Political Science) (Tribhuvan University), M.C.L. (1979–1981), and Ph.D. in Law (1991–1995) (Delhi University). Post-Doctoral Senior Fulbright Scholar (USA: 2002–2003).

Currently, Professor of Law, distinguished member of the Centre for Environmental Law, and member of the Environmental Law Subject Committee of the Faculty of Law, Tribhuvan University. Also a Senior Advocate; former Head of the Central Department of Law and Dean of the Faculty of Law, Tribhuvan University.

Former Governing Board member of SAARCLAW and the IUCN Academy of Environmental Law. Founding Chair of the IUCN Commission on Environmental Law, Nepal Chapter. Began teaching at Nepal Law Campus in February 1979.

Recipient of the Best Teaching Award (Tribhuvan University) in 1987, SUPRABAL JANASEWA SHREE from the President of Nepal in 2016, KANOON SAMMAN (with a cash prize of one lakh rupees) from the Lawyers' Club in 2017 for contributions to the legal field, and PRAGIK SAMMAN in 2022 from Nepal Law Campus, Tribhuvan University, for contributions to the academic field.