

Dr. Erimma Gloria Orié is a former Head of Department, Private and Property Law of the Faculty of Law, National Open University of Nigeria. Dr. Orié is a senior member of the Nigerian Bar Association and a qualified Mediator (ODR-EUROPE certified) and a member of several professional bodies; Nigerian Maritime Law Association, Nigerian Institute of Chartered Arbitrators, Law and Society Association, World Commission on Environmental Law (IUCN-WCEL), the European Environmental Law Forum (EELF) and the Academic Committee of the International Network for Environmental Compliance and Enforcement (INECE). Dr Orié is a pioneer Associate Fellow of the Centre of Excellence in Migration and Global Studies (CEMGS) and also a Research Fellow in the Directorate of Research Administration of her University, a Fellow of the Ife Institute of Advanced Studies (IAS), University of Ife , Nigeria, and an Associate Editor of International Journal of Climate Change Strategies And Management.

Dr. Orié has attended several local and international workshops/conferences including the annual UN Meeting of Conference of Parties (COP) on climate change. She has researched extensively in the area of climate change and renewable energy and has several 25 peer-reviewed articles to her credit. She also contributed chapters in books on Energy Law and Environmental law.

