PRESS NOTE

RPNLUP Condemns Misleading and Defamatory Content Concerning Faculty Recruitment.

Dr. Rajendra Prasad National Law University (RPNLUP), Prayagraj, takes serious note and unequivocally condemns, the circulation and publication of misleading, criminally intimidating, derogatory and defamatory statements, imputations and insinuations on social media and news platforms concerning the recent appointment of Assistant Professors at the University.

The University has taken strict cognizance of the matter and has initiated appropriate legal proceedings against the person/s, or entity/ies responsible for creating, publishing, circulating or disseminating such false and defamatory content. In this connection, a formal complaint has already been lodged with the Commissioner of Police, Prayagraj, on 19.08.2026.

RPNLUP accords paramount importance to transparency, academic integrity and institutional accountability. The University's recruitment and selection processes are conducted strictly in accordance with the applicable statutory provisions, regulatory framework and prescribed procedures. RPNLUP shall take all necessary and stringent legal, civil, criminal and institutional measures available in law to protect its institutional reputation, academic credibility and the sanctity of its recruitment processes.
