PRESS NOTE

It has come to notice of the Equal Opportunity Cell (EOC) that several clippings, pertaining to the ongoing hearings of the complainants received by Cell and the pending proceedings before the Hon'ble High Court of Judicature at Allahabad, are being circulated in the print media and social media platforms. Such media platforms are revealing the identity of the Complainants. It is directed by the Hon'ble High Court that strict confidentiality to be maintained in respect of the subject matter of these proceedings. Further, no adverse effect should be caused to the academic or administrative environment of the University or to the interests of any person concerned. In case of non-compliance, stringent action would be taken in this regard.
